Re: United States v. Hanan Ofer
Criminal Docket No. 21-174 (DG)

Dear Judge Gujarati:

The government respectfully submits, pursuant to Rule 16(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, a stipulated protective order that limits the disclosure of certain sensitive material in the above-referenced case. Due to the nature of the conduct at issue in this matter, unrestricted disclosure of those materials could result in the dissemination of personally identifying information of third parties and witnesses. Accordingly, the government and counsel for the defendant have jointly agreed to a stipulated protective order, which is attached hereto.

For the foregoing reasons, the government respectfully requests that the Court so-order the attached stipulated protective order.

Respectfully submitted,

MARK J. LESKO
Acting United States Attorney
Eastern District of New York
